My Artwork—By Elaine

I drew the border first to make it stand out. Then I decided to do the words in bubble writing, which I did by hand. I outlined the words in black pen to make them stand out. The butterflies were stickers and I used four on each side. I chose colours that go together. I drew a frame and coloured it to look like wood. I had a little help from a friend. It took me 2 and a half hours over 2 days to finish. My manager suggested me because she thinks I'm good at art.
