

Enjoyable Drama Summer School

In this year's drama summer schools we created and performed scenes from The Greatest Showman and Aladdin.

Each participant chose the character they'd like to be and together worked to create scripts for the scenes they wished to perform. As a group we directed and set the scenes and at the end of the day we performed for parents and staff at Frontline.

Here is some feedback from participants:

Friday Café Art at the Crown Café By Irene Malvezi – Group's Art Facilitator

Our art group is getting better every time. Clients are getting more involved with their artworks through very simple techniques such as collage and mixing colours. The help received by their carers has always been invaluable, but now sessions are even better with the help of two new amazing volunteers, Barry and Sharon.

I can talk about many of our clients with much enthusiasm, but this time I emphasise the joy and energy of JJ, who has achieved a lot in the past year. He has been able to use different art materials and create very energetic and striking colour mixtures.

We also have a new member in the group, SB, who at first was very shy, but now demonstrates a lot of creativity and spontaneity in his artworks; he is particularly skilful with colouring and enjoys mixing up drawing and painting.

The main concept of our Friday Café Art is to give the opportunity to clients to enjoy the art-making process. It is a sensory exercise (mainly motor and visual), and it does not matter if the final result is a simple line on paper, or a complete painting. It is not about completion or competition, but fun and what everyone is able to create individually, or with the interaction and help of carers.

Let's keep up with the enthusiasm and fun!
Best wishes, Irene.
